V. Other Business : Consideration of a Free Speech Syllabus Optional Statement

“The University of Toledo is committed to free speech and providing an environment where students are encouraged to exchange ideas and viewpoints. The University urges every student, faculty member and staff member to respect others in the campus community while allowing for differing opinions to be shared. For information, please review the UT Policy 3364-5-14 – Expression on Campus. Disciplinary sanctions may be imposed on students based on their behaviors, but not their viewpoints. Non-academic misconduct is outlined in UT Policy 3364-30-04 – Student Code of Conduct. In the event you have questions regarding these policies, please contact the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards at (419) 530.1258.”

Continuation of the First Reading of proposed revisions to the Faculty Senate Constitution

VI. Items from the floor

VII. Adjournment

Faculty members have the right to attend meetings, speak to issues before our Faculty Senate, and are encouraged to express their view on university issues to their respective representatives. Students, alumni, emeritus faculty, staff members, community members, and administrators, etc., are all invited to speak to issues before Faculty Senate.

Senators arriving late should report to the Faculty Senate Executive Secretary after the meeting to insure their attendance is recorded.
