- Semester Event with Dr. Whitney Peoples
 - Title: Principles & Practice of Critical Inclusive Pedagogies
 - Date: Wednesday April 1, 2020 9:00 am – 11:00 am
 - Location HH 1711
 - Limited seating to 50 so there will be an RSVP by March 20th to CHHSMarComm@utoledo.edu
 - Committee members will work to encourage all of their school faculty to attend
 - Set up will begin at 8:00 am that day. Amanda volunteered her work student students. If anyone else has access to work study students or GA's to assist please, please make those arrangements so we have enough people to set up.
 - Julie will try to get water or coffee.
 - Sherry working on Social Work CEUs
 - Our committee will take Dr. Peoples out to lunch. Julie will follow up to see what Dr. Peoples' preferences is for lunch.
 - Dr. Peoples will also be presenting at the Health Science campus from 1:00 to 3:00.
- Other items discussed:
 - Compile the work of this committee for a report and archiving our past work/events and posting them to the website. Sativa will begin the process of putting together a list of our accomplishments. If committee member have information with dates, titles, names, etc. of our work, please forward to Sativa.
 - Monthly Brown Bag lunch series for students to begin in the summer.
 - Initial topics include: Classroom Inclusivity, and Difficult Conversations around Diversity
 - Build off of the information that we receive from Dr. Peoples
 - Discussed day and time options. Perhaps have it vary from summer to fall to spring.
 - College Community Groups were discussed as a way to support students of color and increase retention
- Our next meetings for this semester are:
 - Wednesday, 3/25/20 at 2:00pm and Wednesday, 4/15/20 at 2:00pm

Respectfully Submitted,

Sherry Tripepi
