Upcoming Programs

Summer Opportunities Forum

January 10th at 11:50am: Auditorium

Are you wondering how to get legal experience this summer? Do you have questions about externship or work study opportunities? Come to the Summer Opportunities Forum on Wednesday, January 10th at 11:50am and learn about the Public Service Externship Clinic, Work Study, Public Service Commendation, and Public Service Fellowships. Prof. Fink from the clinic, Kelly Tomlinson from OPD, and Cara Wall from the TBA Diversity Committee, will be there to present on and answer your questions regarding various programs!

Please RSVP on Symplicity by 5pm on Monday, January 8th. Pizza will be provided for those who RSVP.

What: Summer Opportunities Forum

When: Wednesday, January 10th at 11:50am – 12:50pm

Where: The Auditorium

Why: To learn about opportunities to gain valuable legal experience this summer

Who: You! (Open to all class levels)

Food: Pizza for those that RSVP

Mock Interviews

January 19th and 26th - Off Campus

Sign up for a mock interview with a Toledo Alumni or friend of the law school. To sign up click on this link and select the time that works best for you. All interviews are held at the interviewers place of business (firm, court, or organization). You are responsible for your own transportation to/from the interview. Once you have selected a time, email your current legal resume to Maureen Dwyer at OPD@toledo.edu with the subject line "Mock Interview Resume: (Last Name)" Resumes will be sent to the employer in advance of your mock interview. If you register for a mock interview, you are committing to attending, as the employer will be waiting for you at his/her office.

Remember you MUST participate in a mock interview prior to being allowed to participate in On-Campus Interviews (OCI).

Questions? Contact OPD!

SAVE THE DATES - Spring Semester

Save the dates for the following programs in January.

RSVP POLICY

Please note The Office of Professional Development's RSVP Policy:

The Office of Professional Development will be following a strict RSVP policy for the 2017-2018 school year. Any programming put on by OPD that advertises that pizza or food will be provided, requires an RSVP by the date listed. OPD will only order food for those that RSVP by the deadline. This includes required programming, such as mandatory class meetings, specifically whether you are attending at 11:50am or 5:15pm.

Additionally, other programming such as networking events or events with alumni involvement, may list a required number of RSVPs by a certain deadline to go forward. If the number is not reached, the event may be canceled. Please RSVP to these events as soon as you know you will be able to attend.

RSVP early, often, and encourage your friends!

OPD Evening Hours

The OPD staff is available in the evenings by appointment. If you would like to make an appointment, please contact us at opd@utoledo.edu or 419-530-2851.

Additionally, the office will be open until 6:00 p.m. on the following evenings:

JUDICIAL RECOURSES COMMITTEE &
JUST THE BEGINNING-A PIPELINE ORGANIZATION (JRC-JTB)
PRESENTS...

SUMMER 2018 FEDERAL/STATE
JUDICIAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

WHY YOU?

With more than 200 iJudges, JRC-JTB has direct pipeline access for you to compete for judicial internships in hot legal markets including but not limited to; California, Connecticut, Washington, DC, New York, Alabama, South Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, and more!

TANGIBILITY.

A judicial internship will allow you to be hands on and work on creating legal briefs, reading cases, writing bench memoranda, and drafting judicial opinions under guidance of a judicial law clerk and judge. Our successful JRC-JTB interns are more likely to secure multiple interviews in on-campus job interviews than their colleagues who do not intern with a judge.

THE CORRELATION BETWEEN JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIPS AND FUTURE EMPLOYMENT.

Our track record shows a definite correlation between JRC-JTB interns and judicial clerkships and jobs in law firms. We've had 40+ summer interns become judicial law clerks and many more who are now associates in law firms.

DON'T MISS OUT!

For more information visit jtb.org, or email Jenna Feldman at sjidproject@jtb.org

70 WEST MADISON STREET SUITE 2900, CHICAGO, IL 60602 | WWW.JTB.ORG

HOW TO APPLY: All the program requirements are attached in the accompanying Memorandum of Understanding. Applicants should submit the following materials as one PDF

document named Lastname_Firstname_Summer 2018 JRC-JTB Application and organized in the following order:

(1) a cover letter* explaining the applicant's interest in diversity and participating in the Summer Judicial Internship Diversity Project; (2) a resume ; (3) a law school transcript , official or unofficial (if first semester law school grades are unavailable or incomplete, please send an undergraduate transcript and supplement with law school grades as they become available to sjidproject@jtb.org); (4) a writing sample (no more than 10 pages in length); (5) a list of three references (no family members, please); and (6) a signed Memorandum of Understanding (attached).

Paper applications will not be accepted. To access the online application, please visit www.jtb.org, search under the programs tab and click on the '2018 Summer Judicial Internship Project for Law Students', or visit <https://www.tfaforms.com/4642477>. At present, this is an unpaid internship, so applicants are encouraged to seek law school or non-profit funding. Applicants are also strongly encouraged to apply to the ABA's Judicial Intern Opportunity Program, which has been a source of funding for Project interns. Students who apply to both JIOP and JRC-JTB AND are placed with an existing JIOP judge in a JIOP program location, may participate in both programs and receive funding (the $2,000 award) from the JIOP program. All applicants may participate in the JRC-JTB interviewing webinar and students recommended for judicial review through JIOP may also participate in the writing seminar.

*NOTE: Applications will be available beginning November 10, 2017. Applications will be received online until 5:00 p.m. EST on Friday, January 10, 2018. Early applications are highly encouraged.

Alternative Spring Break – Memphis, Tennessee: March 4 – March 8

Memphis Law's Alternative Spring Break program, coordinated and run by the Public Action Law Society (PALS), seeks to help low-income individuals who need legal representation, while simultaneously providing law students the opportunity to gain experience in the legal field. Here is the link for the ASB promotional video made during the 2016 spring break: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iUeGguUyn9k>. Students from six law schools, including Toledo Law, participated last year.

The 2018 spring break program runs from Sunday, March 4 to Thursday, March 8 and the program usually reserves Fridays of Spring break for students from out of town to be able to explore Memphis.

Theme and Tracks

Every year, Alternative Spring Break has a theme, which is the focus of the panels and which the Research and Writing track is centered around. This year, the theme is “Averting Crisis: Mental Health Interventions for Improving Our Justice System.” The program will be running eight different tracks this year: (1) Health Law, (2) Elder Law, (3) Family Law, (4) Criminal Law, (5) Veterans Law, (6) Juvenile Law, (7) Immigration Law, and (8) Research and Writing.

Transportation, Housing, and Meals

Students are responsible for their own travel to and from Memphis. The program provides housing for participants, as well as transportation to and from the law school within Memphis. In addition, PALS provides students with breakfast and lunch during the working week, as well as hors d' oeuvres at the Sunday opening and Thursday closing events. Please note that, if students do not want to stay at the provided housing, they are more than welcome to provide for their own stay at any of the many hotels in the Downtown, Midtown, or East Memphis areas

Interested students should contact OPD for an application as soon as possible, but no later than 5:00 p.m. on Friday, January 11, 2018. Toledo Law will pay the non-refundable deposit fee for up to four students (once they are accepted by Memphis Law into the program) on a first-come, first-served basis

Wolverine Bar Association – 2018 Summer Clerkship & Judicial Externship Programs

The Wolverine Bar Association strives to increase the number of minority attorneys employed in well-respected positions, such as partners, associates, in-house counsel, and judicial clerks in Southeastern Michigan. In line with this goal, the Summer Clerkship and Judicial Externship Programs were created.

In partnership with several law firms and corporations, the Summer Clerkship Program places first-year, minority law students in clerkship positions that will provide opportunities to establish a network of contacts, develop practice skills, and acquire other benefits. Working in a challenging professional environment will allow the participants to gain the skills to launch a successful legal career. The Program provides participating employers an additional mechanism to accomplish individual diversity goals and express their commitment to, and underscore the importance of, diversity in the legal community. Some law firm placements are available for second and third year students as well, through the Judicial Externship Program.

To expand judicial clerkship opportunities for minority students, the Judicial Externship Program works in conjunction with the United States District Court of the Eastern District of Michigan and is administered by the Honorable Victoria A. Roberts. The Program assists participating judges in locating eligible law students for summer externships. To that end, the Judicial Externship Program is a mechanism for externs to establish relationships with judges and federal law clerks, further their analytical reasoning and legal writing skills, and become comfortable with the decision making process that judges employ. In addition, externs are exposed to the practical application of the law.

To be eligible to participate in SCP, applicants must: (i) be a minority law student; (ii) be in good standing at his or her law school; (iii) demonstrate strong research, writing and analytical abilities, (iv) have ties to SE Michigan and a desire to practice in metropolitan Detroit after completing law school; (v) have completed a legal writing course before the clerkship begins; (vi) by the time the clerkship starts, have completed no more than 30 credit hours towards graduation; and (vii) expect to graduate no later than May 2020.

1L, 2L, and 3L minority law students are eligible to participate in the Judicial Externship Program.

For more information on the 2018 Summer Programs, or for the application(s) please contact Laura Dettinger at Laura.Dettinger@utoledo.edu

If you wish to be considered for the 2018 Summer Clerkship and/or Judicial Externship Programs you must submit the materials by electronic mail no later than noon (Eastern Standard Time) on Monday, January 22, 2018.

OSBA Environmental Law Award - Call for Papers

Have you written or are you planning to write a paper on an environmental law issue? Would you like the chance to have your writing published and win money? Submit a paper!

Last year, the first and second place winners were Toledo Law students! (And other Toledo Law students have won or were runner up over the past several years.)

For submission guidelines and more information click here.

Deadline for submissions: 5:00 p.m. EST on January 31, 2018.

2018 Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association Ethics and Professionalism Essay Competition, sponsored by AmericanLawRadio.com and Malik Law

The Competition is open to all full- and part-time students attending an ABA-accredited law school and enrolled in a JD or LLM program. The first-place winner will receive $1,500.00. The winning essay may be published in the CMBA's Bar Journal. The second-place winner will receive $1,000.00.

The topic for the 2018 Competition is:

The Ohio Bar Examination application requires an applicant to provide information regarding the applicant's criminal convictions and expungements. (See Gov. Bar. R.I, Sec. 11(D).) In college, an applicant was convicted of a crime. On appeal, the Supreme Court found that the statute under which the applicant was convicted violated the constitutional right to free speech (e.g., protesting an elected official) and overturned the conviction. Is the applicant required to disclose the overturned conviction on the Bar Examination application? Why or why not?

Essays should be no more than 1600 words and will be electronically submitted in Word. The deadline for submissions is February 9, 2018. Winners will be announced no later than April 20, 2018.

For more information, including rules and submission forms, please go to www.clemetrobar.org/essay and follow the link for the Competition. You or your students may also contact the Competition's director, Tom Horwitz, at 440-892-3331 or by email at tmh@horwitzlpa.com.
