Professional Development Program

Professional Development Program

Student Instructions

The College of Law designed the Professional Development Program to help you to identify and network throughout your legal education career. Each year you will be required to complete certain mandatory activities. Additionally, throughout law school you will be required to attend networking and skills events, complete pro bono awareness tasks, and participate in professional exploration activities. Inside your designated class folder will include the activity categories and the number of activities required for each class year. This Professional Development Program is a floor, not a ceiling, and encourages you to participate in as many of the activities as your schedule allows.

How it works:

Mandatory Activities: Mandatory activities include class level specific programs and meetings with the Office of Professional Development. These meetings will be announced in the OPI newsletters and emails sent by OPD staff. Some activities may be “on-demand” or web-based. Additional activities will likely require pre- or post-work such as filling out a professional identification form or updating your application documents.

Networking and Skills Events: These are events sponsored, or co-sponsored by the College of Law, and involve participation by Toledo Law alumni or friends of the law school. OPD staff will list the dates of events that qualify under this category in the OPD newsletter and/or by email.

Pro Bono Awareness Tasks: Ohio, along with many other states, encourages pro bono service as a lawyer's professional duties to the public and justice system. Therefore, these tasks are not just a nice-to-have, but they will help kick-start a commitment to your professional duty as a lawyer. The Ohio Supreme court states in the Preamble to the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct: “We encourage you to devote professional time and resources and use civic influence to ensure equal access to justice for those who because of economic or social barrier cannot afford or secure legal representation. Your responsibility to find pro bono clinics and volunteer to help, or find an attorney to provide a shadow. OPD is happy to help in your search but will not be responsible for placing you in pro bono opportunities. OPD may advertise pro bono projects and other opportunities via the OPD newsletter and/or by email.”

Professional Exploration: Professional exploration tasks will aid in determining your interests, your identity and long-term career path. Exploring the profession can be done on a large scale, such as at a legal conference, for example. Or on a smaller scale, such as a one-on-one informational interview. You have your responsibility to find outside events related to your areas of interest, set up an informational interview, or arrange observation of a legal proceeding. OPD is happy to help in your search.

Tracking: This webcourse should be used tracking your completed activities. You will be required to report the activities that you completed. The Office of Professional Development will track all mandatory in-person activities. Note, if you complete a mandatory activity or a pro bono activity, you are responsible for tracking it in the “2019-2020 Professional Development Program (PDP)” webcourse.

Turn-in: You are required to report each Networking and Skills, Pro Bono Awareness, and Professional Exploration activity by end of the semester in which you complete the number of activities required for that level. This is your “reporting period.” Reporting is done via the “2019-2020 Professional Development Program (PDP)” webcourse, and should be done in the appropriate drop-box or questionnaire for each activity.

For example, if you are a full-time 1L student who started in August 2019 and completed your first semester by the end of Spring 2020, you would report your 1L activities by the end of the Spring 2020 reporting period.

Contact OPD@utoledo.edu with questions about the Professional Development Program (PDP).

For the checklist of activities, log into Blackboard > "2019-2020 Professional Development Program (PDP)" and click on the appropriate folder for your reporting period under "Content."
